4 5 II. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

7 6. On September 12, 2011, ROBERT in his individual capacity and represented by 8 counsel filed a motion for relief from the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362 (the “stay”) in which he
9 sought relief from the stay to proceed against plaintiff in Los Angeles County Superior Court case BP
10 122477 (the “probate action”). The motion for relief from stay sought an order “[a]llowing Movant
11 to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to proceed to final judgment 12 in the non-bankruptcy forum, provided that the stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of 13 any judgment against Debtor(s) or estate property.” (Italics added.) According to the declaration
14 attached to the motion for relief from stay signed by ROBERT, the “causes of action pleaded in the 15 non-bankruptcy forum” were “[1] Specific Power to Evict Tenant from Trust Property; [2] To 16 Determine Working Plan Has No Legal Bearing; [3] To Determine Ownership of Trust Property; and
17 [4] Request to Offset Distributive Share.” The motion for relief from stay attached the petition filed
18 in the probate action as “Exhibit A.” The Chapter 7 trustee, David A. Gill, opposed the motion for 19 relief from stay; plaintiff did not oppose the motion. On October 4, 2011, ROBERT in his individual
20 capacity filed a response to the Chapter 7 trustee’s opposition to his motion that was supported by a
21 declaration prepared by RUSSAKOW, GREENE.
25

26
27 7. According to ROBERT’S declaration in support of his motion for relief from stay one
28 of the “causes of action pleaded in the non-bankruptcy forum” is a “Request to Offset Distributive

1 Share.” ROBERT’S petition attached as “Exhibit A” to the motion for relief from stay alleges in 2 paragraph 34 that:

4 “The trustee also requests that Richard’s distributive share be offset for 5 attorney’s fees and costs against based on his willful acts to thwart the 6 Trustee’s efforts to complete renovation, list the property for sale, and 7 distribute the assets [the ‘probate petition’].”

10 The prayer in the probate petition requests the probate court to “offset Richard Kvassay’s distributive
11 share of the estate to be determined by [the probate] Court....”

14 8. On October 6, 2011, the Court considered ROBERT’S motion for relief from stay. On 15 October 21, 2011, the Court entered the order granting relief from stay in which it ordered that
16 ROBERT KVASSAY, TRUSTEE OF THE KVASSAY FAMILY TRUST DATED FEBRUARY 26, 17 1993 (“ROBERT”) “may proceed in the non-bankruptcy forum to final judgment (including any 18 appeals) in accordance with applicable non-bankruptcy law” and that “movant is permitted to enforce
19 its final judgment....” (Italics added.)

23 9. On April 23, 2012, ROBERT, represented by RUSSAKOW, GREENE, filed a so-
24 called “Motion to Release Bond to Petitioner” served on plaintiff as a party (on April 25, 2012) in 25 which he sought an “Order Releasing Respondent’s appeal bond to Petitioner now that the appeal has 26 been decided in favor of Petitioner [the ‘first bond motion’].” The notice section of the first bond
27 motion does not make a claim in any monetary amount but the section in the motion entitled “Factual
28

1 and Procedural Background” states as follows:

3 “[¶] Petitioner has now incurred 18 months of carrying costs, and 4 anticipates that by the time of the hearing of this motion, will have 5 incurred 20 months of carrying costs (anticipated hearing date after 6 June 1, 2012). Therefore, Petitioner requests this Court’s Order
7 releasing the full $216,000 cash bond posted by Respondents to 8 Petitioner, plus any accrued interest.”
10

11
12 Section “II” of the first bond motion states:

13
14 “There is no doubt that Respondents’ cash bond was posted to ensure
15 reimbursement for the trust estate property carrying cost that Petitioner
16 did in fact incur while enduring Respondents’ frivolous appeal.
17 Petitioner is entitled to have the bond monies released to him in full
18 and respectfully requests this Court’s order for same.”
19

22 10. On May 9, 2012, the California Court of Appeal issued its remittitur affirming a
23 probate court order dated August 18, 2010, granting ROBERT the right to evict plaintiff and his 24 brother Peter Emanuel Kvassay (“PETER”) from real property owned by the Trust (the “remittitur”).
25 The appeal underlying the remittitur was filed by plaintiff and PETER on September 22, 2010 (the 26 “appeal”). On October 7, 2010, a third party posted a cash deposit of $216,000 made in lieu of an
27 appeal bond on behalf of plaintiff and PETER that stayed enforcement of the probate court eviction
28

1 order pending the appeal (the “appeal bond”). Plaintiff and PETER resided at the real property
2 owned by the Trust from the date the appeal bond was posted on October 7, 2010, to May 21, 2012, a
3 period of 19½ months.

6 11. On May 10, 2012, plaintiff and PETER filed an opposition to the first bond motion.
7 On May 16, 2012, RUSSAKOW, GREENE filed a declaration in reply to plaintiff’s opposition to the 8 first bond motion. On May 18, 2012, plaintiff and PETER filed evidentiary objections to the 9 declaration filed by RUSSAKOW, GREENE in support of the first bond motion. On June 5, 2012,
10 plaintiff’s counsel filed a declaration in response to the declaration filed by RUSSAKOW, GREENE
11 in support of the first bond motion. On June 6, 2012, the probate court held a hearing on the first 12 bond motion and denied the motion because it was filed before the remittitur was issued.
13

16 12. On June 26, 2012, ROBERT filed a second so-called “Motion to Release Bond to 17 Petitioner” served on plaintiff and PETER as parties (on June 28, 2012) in which he sought an “Order
18 Releasing Respondent’s appeal bond, submitted in cash in the amount of $216,000 to the Court, to 19 the Trust Estate now that the appeal has been decided in Petitioner’s favor and the remittitur has 20 issued [the ‘second bond motion’].” The notice section of the second bond motion states as follows:

23 “This motion is made on the ground that the stated basis of the $216,000
24 bond was the parties’ stipulated fair rental value of $12,000 per month
25 for Respondents’ continued possession and enjoyment of the property,
26 which was multiplied by the anticipated length of time for Respondent’s
27 appeal to be completed, 18 months (18 x $12,000 = $216,000). More
28

1                    than 20 months have passed, and therefore, the Trust Estate is
2                    entitled to the full amount of the $216,000 bond [italics added].”

5            13.     On July 27, 2012, plaintiff and PETER filed an opposition to the second bond motion.
6     On August 6, 2012, the probate court held a hearing on the second bond motion and scheduled an
7     evidentiary hearing on the motion for September 5, 2012 (the “evidentiary hearing”). On August 13,
8     2012, and August 14, 2012, plaintiff’s counsel faxed and/or mailed RUSSAKOW, GREENE separate
9     letters concerning an expedited discovery schedule to prepare for the evidentiary hearing. On August
10    15, 2012, plaintiff personally served ROBERT with written discovery to prepare for the evidentiary
11    hearing, including a demand for production of documents, demand for exchange of expert witness
12    information, and demand for inspection of real property. On August 15, 2012, plaintiff personally
13    served ROBERT with two subpoenas requesting the appearance of ROBERT and a third party
14    witness at the evidentiary hearing, including respective demands for production of documents at the 15    evidentiary hearing.
16
17

19            14.     On August 29, 2012, plaintiff made an ex parte application in the probate court for an
20    order to reschedule the evidentiary hearing on the second bond motion so that the parties could 21    conduct discovery to prepare for the evidentiary hearing (the “ex parte application”). On August 29,
22    2012, the probate court denied the ex parte application.
23
24

25            15.     On September 4, 2012, plaintiff personally served ROBERT with his expert witness
26    designation for the evidentiary hearing. On September 4, 2012, ROBERT served plaintiff with an 27    objection to plaintiff’s demand for documents (served by plaintiff on ROBERT to prepare for the 28

1 evidentiary hearing) and his expert witness designation.

4 16. On September 5, 2012, prior to the evidentiary hearing, PETER filed a Chapter 7
5 petition (case no. 2:12-bk-40267-PC). At the outset of the evidentiary hearing plaintiff's counsel
6 gave the probate court and RUSSAKOW, GREENE written and oral notice of plaintiff's bankruptcy
7 case and PETER'S Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing, including a copy of the written notice of PETER'S
8 bankruptcy filing issued by the bankruptcy court clerk. Plaintiff's counsel's written notice of 9 plaintiff's and PETER'S pending Chapter 7 cases given to the probate court and RUSSAKOW,
10 GREENE prior to the evidentiary hearing on September 5, 2012, states in part as follows:

13 “[¶] Respondent RICHARD S. KVASSAY hereby gives notice that 14 on January 13, 2011, he filed a Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition in the 15 bankruptcy court that was subsequently converted to a Chapter 7 case.
16 RICHARD S. KVASSAY’S Chapter 7 bankruptcy case is presently
17 pending.
18

19
20 “[¶] Respondents PETER E. KVASSAY and RICHARD S. KVASSAY
21 (“respondents”) hereby give notice that their respective Chapter 7
22 bankruptcy proceedings preclude any state court action to enforce any 23 pre-petition bankruptcy claim against either of them, respectively. The 24 claims presently being asserted against respondents on an appeal bond<sup>1</sup>
25 are pre-petition bankruptcy claims, as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5), 26
27

28

1 The appeal bond stayed enforcement of an order filed by the Probate Court on August 18, 2010.

1 because the claims arose no later than October 7, 2010, the date on
2 which the appeal bond was posted, which date was prior to the date on
3 which each respondent filed his presently pending Chapter 7
4 bankruptcy proceeding. Consequently, each debtor's Chapter 7
5 bankruptcy proceeding precludes any state court action to enforce any 6 claim against either respondent on the appeal bond. Any state court
7 action to enforce any pre-petition bankruptcy claim against either
8 respondent on the appeal bond interferes with the jurisdiction of the 9 bankruptcy court to order a discharge of pre-petition bankruptcy claims
10 asserted against either respondent.

12
13
14 “[¶] Each respondent hereby gives notice that if any state court action
15 is taken against him to enforce any claim against him on the appeal
16 bond, respondent will immediately seek the protection of the 17 bankruptcy court in precluding any state court action to enforce any 18 pre-petition bankruptcy claim against him on the appeal bond [the 19 ‘bankruptcy notice’].”
20
21

22
23 In response to the bankruptcy notice, RUSSAKOW, GREENE stated on the record that:
24

25 “What we’ve been handed is an unconfirmed, noncertified [sic]
26 document. We have already received relief from stay on Richard
27 Kvassay’s bankruptcy.”
28

1 On September 5, 2012, the probate court conducted the evidentiary hearing based on the second bond
2 motion.

5 17. On December 12, 2012, the probate court filed a minute order based on the evidentiary
6 hearing held on September 5, 2012, that states in pertinent part:

8 “[¶] Judgment is entered in the amount of $192,660.00, joint and 9 severally against Richard S. Kvassay and Peter E. Kvassay.

11
12 “[¶] As to the balance of funds, there shall be no further funds released
13 pending the outcome of the Bankruptcy or further court order [the 14 ‘judgment’].”

16
17 18. On January 8, 2013, plaintiff and PETER filed a civil action in the Los Angeles
18 County Superior Court seeking to set aside the judgment (case BC 498669). Plaintiff’s civil action to 19 set aside the judgment is presently pending.

22 19. On January 16, 2013, the probate court signed and filed a document entitled “Order
23 Re. Release Of Bond” based on the judgment and prepared by RUSSAKOW, GREENE that states in 24 pertinent part:

25
26 “the Court finds that the fair value for use and occupancy of the trust
27 estate property where Peter and Richard resided is $15,000 per month,
28

1 less $4,600 per month for rents received, for 19½ month less 5% for
2 diminished use and occupancy of the property, for a total due, jointly
3 and several from Peter and Richard to Robert, as trustee of the Kvassay
4 family trust, of $192,660[.] The balance of the bond is to be held for
5 determination by the United States Bankruptcy Court where both Peter
6 and Richard have pending cases [the ‘first bond order’][.]”

10 20. On January 24, 2013, the probate court signed and filed a document entitled “First 11 Amended Order Re. Release Of Bond” based on the judgment and prepared by RUSSAKOW,
12 GREENE that states in pertinent part:
13

14 “the Court finds that the fair value for use and occupancy of the trust
15 estate property where Peter and Richard resided is $15,000 per month,
16 less $4,600 per month for rents received, for 19½ month less 5% for
17 diminished use and occupancy of the property, for a total due, jointly
18 and several from Peter and Richard to Robert, as trustee of the Kvassay
19 family trust, of $192,660. The balance of the bond is to be held for
20 determination by the United States Bankruptcy Court where both Peter
21 Peter and Richard have pending cases.
22
23
24

25 “[¶] WHEREFORE, the Court Orders that the Clerk of the Los Angeles
26 Superior Court, located at 111 N. Hill Street, Rm 119-A, Los Angeles,
27 CA 90012, pay from the bond of Peter Kvassay and Richard Kvassay
28

1 on deposit with the Court, to:

2 Robert Kvassay
3 Trustee of the Kvassay Family Trust Dated February 26, 1993
4 c/o Russakow, Greene & Tan, LLP
5 800 E. Colorado Blvd., Suite 210
6 Pasadena, CA 91101

8 IT IS SO ORDERED [the 'amended bond order'].

10 21. On January 29, 2013, plaintiff and PETER filed a Petition for Peremptory Writ of 11 Prohibition and/or Writ of Mandate in the California Court Appeal to vacate the first bond order and 12 the amended bond order (case no. B246442) (the "writ"). On February 6, 2013, plaintiff and PETER
13 filed a notice of appeal in the California Court of Appeal to appeal the judgment, first bond order, and 14 amended bond order (case no. B246941) (the "appeal"). On February 8, 2013, the California Court
15 of Appeal denied the writ. The appeal is presently pending.
16

17 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that on January 29, 2013,
18 ROBERT and RUSSAKOW, GREENE took possession of $192,660.00 of the $216,000 appeal bond
19 from the clerk of the Los Angeles County Superior Court (the "clerk") pursuant to the amended bond 20 order.

22 23. On May 9, 2013, the bankruptcy court ordered potential property of the bankruptcy
23 estate, including the appeal bond and plaintiff's interest in the probate action, abandoned pursuant to 24 11 U.S.C. § 554.

III. CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Relief for Willful Violation of Automatic Stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(k)(1)

Against ROBERT and RUSSAKOW, GREENE)

24. Plaintiff incorporates and re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 23 as if fully alleged herein.

25. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(a), a petition filed under section 301, 302, or 303

“operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of—

(1) the commencement or continuation ... of a judicial ... proceeding against the debtor ... to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title ...

(6) any act to collect, assess, or recover a claim against the debtor that arose before commencement of the case under this title [italics added].”

The appeal bond to stay enforcement of plaintiff’s eviction from real property owned by the Trust was posted on October 7, 2010, more than three months before plaintiff filed his bankruptcy petition on January 13, 2011. Plaintiff resided at the real property owned by the Trust from the date the appeal bond was posted on October 7, 2010, to May 21, 2012, a period of 19½ months. The judgment ROBERT obtained against plaintiff on December 12, 2012, is based on the purported value of plaintiff’s use and occupancy of the real property owned by the Trust that accrued 19½ months

1 before May 21, 2012 (i.e., on October 7, 2010).

3 26. The order granting relief from stay entered by the court on October 21, 2011, provided
4 that ROBERT could proceed to “final judgment” in case BP 122477 as to the “causes of action
5 pleaded in the non-bankruptcy forum.” As of October 21, 2011, the “causes of action pleaded in the 6 non-bankruptcy forum” did not include a claim for a judgment against plaintiff to enforce against the 7 appeal bond. As of October 21, 2011, the claim underlying the judgment ROBERT obtained against 8 plaintiff on December 12, 2012, was not pending in the state court. The order granting relief from 9 stay does not provide that ROBERT may pursue a judgment against plaintiff that can be enforced
10 against the appeal bond.
12

13
14 27. ROBERT obtained the judgment against plaintiff on December 12, 2012. ROBERT
15 and RUSSAKOW, GREENE enforced the judgment against plaintiff against the appeal bond by 16 obtaining the amended bond order on January 24, 2013, and executing the order on January 29, 2013,
17 and taking possession of $192,660.00 of the appeal bond. Plaintiff filed a notice of appeal of the 18 judgment, the bond order, and amended bond order on February 6, 2013. The appeal is pending.
19

21 28. ROBERT’S request in the probate petition that plaintiff’s so-called “distributive 22 share” be “offset” is a request that any prospective judgment against plaintiff in the probate action be
23 enforced against plaintiff’s interest in the Trust. Plaintiff’s interest in the Trust is listed in Schedule
24 B of plaintiff’s bankruptcy petition. On May 9, 2013, the bankruptcy estate abandoned any interest it
25 had in the probate action pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554. Any prospective judgment against plaintiff in 26 the probate action will be subject to appeal pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
27
28

1 § 904.1(a)(1) and California Probate Code § 1304(a).

3 29. ROBERT and RUSSAKOW, GREENE willfully violated the automatic stay
4 provisions of 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(a)(1) and (a)(6) by:

7 (1) filing the state court motions to obtain a judgment against 8 plaintiff to enforce against the appeal bond without obtaining
9 relief from the stay to file the motions;
10

11
12 (2) obtaining the judgment against plaintiff to enforce against the 13 appeal bond without obtaining relief from the stay to pursue
14 the judgment against plaintiff;
15

16
17 (3) obtaining the first bond order and amended bond order without 18 obtaining relief from the stay to enforce the judgment against 19 plaintiff; and 20

21
22 (4) executing the amended bond order and taking possession of 23 of $192,660.00 of the appeal bond without obtaining relief
24 from the stay to enforce the judgment against plaintiff.
25

26 Alternatively, ROBERT and RUSSAKOW, GREENE willfully violated the automatic stay
27 provisions of 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(a)(1) and (a)(6) and the order granting relief from stay by enforcing a 28

1 judgment against plaintiff that is not final. Presently, ROBERT is willfully violating the automatic
2 stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(a)(1) and (a)(6) and order granting relief from stay by asking the 3 probate court to enforce a prospective judgment against plaintiff.

6 30. As a direct and proximate result of ROBERT'S and RUSSAKOW, GREENE'S willful

INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 104, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 104 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not presented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.
